

The BRIEFING ROOM Young Minds, Big Ideas

Got big ideas? Share them at RAUSI.

Royal Alberta United Services Institute (RAUSI) invites emerging thinkers to take the mic.

The Briefing Room: Young Minds, Big Ideas spotlights future leaders in strategy, defence, diplomacy, and public affairs. This is your chance to present your ideas to a respected, multi-generational audience – and sharpen them in dialogue with seasoned professionals. You'll gain:

- Presentation Experience
Deliver a 20-30 minute talk in a professional setting – virtual or in-person – to a highly engaged audience.
- Insightful Engagement
Respond to questions and perspectives from Veterans, public servants, and leaders in the field.
- Networking & Visibility
Build connections and boost your profile through RAUSI's growing network.
- Professional Support
We'll work with you to shape your talk, craft your message, and make sure you're set up for success.

Launching June 2025. Present bold ideas, spark challenging conversations, and bring fresh energy – in true RAUSI tradition.

Ready to step into The Briefing Room?

We welcome a wide range of topics, including:

- strategic influence and disinformation;
- cyber conflict and digital sovereignty;
- climate and energy security;
- civil preparedness and resilience;
- Canada's evolving global role; or
- emerging technologies and the future of conflict.

If your idea intersects with security, sovereignty, or strategic thinking – we want to hear about it.

Apply to speak by contacting us at briefing.room@rausi.org. Include a brief summary of your topic, your background, and why it matters.
